

Transfer Guide Geography Bachelor of Arts

Dodge City Community College

Geography as an academic discipline studies the spatial dimensions of, and links between, culture, society and environmental processes. At the University of Kansas our main goal is to understand human actions in specific regional settings, and how these actions affect the physical environments in the past, present and future. Our teaching program reflects the departmental foci, with a B.A. degree emphasizing cultural and regional geography, and B.S. degrees focused on atmospheric and surface processes. One of the strengths of the Department of Geography and Atmospheric Science is our ability to integrate research within the department with research throughout the University and national programs. For example, our faculty expertise in area studies is diverse, specializing in North America, Africa, East Asia, Russia, the Caucasus, Central Asia and Latin America. - It is recommended that general electives and KU Core courses be used to complete prerequisites, explore interests, and/or complete an Associate's Degree. Students must demonstrate fourth semester proficiency in a single non-English language, or third semester proficiency in a first non-English language and first semester proficiency in a second non-English language. This requirement may be met through coursework or examination by the appropriate language department. If Dodge City Community College doesn't offer four semesters of foreign language you may choose to complete electives and fulfill that requirement at KU.

- A maximum of 64 hours of community college course work can be applied toward a KU degree. A Bachelor Degree requires 45-upper level hours. Transfer courses may be matched to a course of opposite level at KU, but the level of credit is defined by the originating institution. (All community college courses are lower level.) Courses with a grade of D+ or below cannot fulfill degree requirements.

- It is the STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY to check for updates to all transfer information. This transfer program is provided as a service and is updated annually. Degree requirements at KU are subject to change.
